It's been wonderful to be a Causie alongside you, T! Your impact on CSP is so seen and appreciated and you'll be missed by us all. Wherever you land next will be lucky to have the commitment and passion you brought to CSP. Wishing you all the best in your next adventure!

Temitope - looking back at what we built together for boardlead.com over the last 6 years, I'm proud of all that we've accomplished. Your drive to always be improving your skills and willingness to switch gears as priorities change is a big part of this success. I appreciate all your hard work and I'm glad I've gotten to know you over the last few years.

Here's to hoping we'll be able to meet up in person soon!

Conor

T - you have left an indelible mark on CSP and I know you will continue to make a difference in all your future endeavors. Thank you for your patience and support over the years!

Lisa

T, you have been such a joy to work with since I started at CSP! Although I am going to miss the humor, energy, and impeccable music taste that you bring to every single team meeting, I am so excited for you as you embark on this next stage of your professional and entrepreneurial journey. Thank you so much for all that you've done for CSP!

Anakaren

I deeply appreciate the joy and positivity Temitope brings to everything he does at Cause Strategy Partners -- he is the real Zeal deal! Though we didn't work together too closely, Temitope's enthusiasm in breakout rooms and meetings always brightened my day. I wish you all the best as you pursue this next chapter. Here's a photo from our first retreat to celebrate :)

One of my fondest memories with Temitope is the times we got to connect in Lagos. Even though he doesn't live in the city, I truly appreciated the effort he made to meet in person and the moments we shared bonding over Nigerian food and music. From my early days at CSP, Temitope was incredibly welcoming, especially during our interactions on the Tech team and our occasional Slack check-ins. His kindness, dedication, and positive spirit will be missed, but I have no doubt he will thrive wherever he goes next. Temitope, I wish you all the best in this next chapter!

Keji

We've worked together for three years, and it took you leaving for me to finally look up what the name Temitope means! As I'm sure you know, it translates in English to "Mine is worthy of thanks and gratitude." How fitting for someone who is owed so much gratitude for all they have done to shape our work at CSP--maybe especially for all the unseen and "thankless" things you do behind the scenes to keep the trains running around here. Your presence and good cheer will be missed, but wishing you the best in the next step!

Nate

T, you always bring so much joy and lightness to our team in every meeting and setting that you're in. Your humor, kindness, wit, and the ways in which you genuinely share of yourself always made my days better. You'll be so genuinely missed! Wishing you all the best in the season to come.

Sammy

Favorite memory of yours with Temitope: T's big, bright, contagious smile and joyous laugh

Farewell message: T - wishing you all the best on this new chapter. Whatever path you decide to take (here in the US, back home, or elsewhere), it seems like there are exciting opportunities ahead. Thanks for your partnership at CSP. I hope our paths cross again soon (in-person!)

James

Favorite memory of T - "Meeting in person! I remember when I was still Graduate Consultant and T made a trip to NYC. It was such a blast to work in person with him at the "mega desk" at WeWork and even enjoy dinner at Rosa Mexicano. Excited to hear that he might be stateside soon, even if he's pursuing a new chapter in his career - good luck!"

Temitope, my first coffee chat at CSP was with you and it left me feeling so welcomed from the start! I wish you the absolute best and can't wait to follow along with where life takes you from here, I am sure great things await you.

Cambri

We will experience a big gap in the CSP office with your absence, T! I'm grateful to have had the opportunity to work alongside you these last few years. I know that you are primed to do really cool things in the world as an entrepreneur and as a Causie!

Jono

Wishing you the best of luck and lots of success in all your future endeavors, T! It's been so great to get to know you better over the past year and a half, I have especially loved the time we have gotten to spend together in many Friday meeting break-out rooms. I'm going to miss your awesome music recommendations and our team won't be the same without your contagious smile and positive energy. Once a Causie, always a Causie!

Amelia

Temitope, it's hard to put into words just how much you've meant to our team and the incredible impact you've had during your time at CSP - Your immense contributions to BoardLead.com and our technology have truly shaped the way we work.

From tackling complex challenges to sharing your technical knowledge and insights, you've made a lasting mark all across CSP, and we are all so grateful for everything you've done (and built!).

While I'm sad to see you go, I'm also excited for you and this next chapter in your journey. I have no doubt that you'll continue to do amazing things wherever you go.

Wishing you all the best in your chapter and beyond - please keep in touch! And as they say, "Once a Causie, Always a Causie!" 💖 Temitope, you have left your mark all over CSP. Your coding, of course, will be part of your enduring legacy. But what will really stay with me is the joy and kindness you brought to work every day. Your smile is infectious. Your curiosity is ever-present. Your team spirit energizes everyone around you. I can't wait to see what is next in store for you. Once a Causie, always a Causie! Don't hesitate to reach out whenever we can support your journey!"

Ashley
